

The Academic Integrity Quest (TAIQ)

INNOVATIVE, GAMIFIED STUDENT-FACING MODULE FOR ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Boost Student Confidence with TAIQ!

Designed around real-world dilemmas, TAIQ guides students through referencing, paraphrasing, collaboration, and ethical use of AI—helping them make integrity-informed decisions in their learning. Unlike traditional modules, TAIQ engages students through gamified, challenge-based learning inspired by classic adventure formats—turning passive content into active, skills-based exploration.

WHY INTEGRATE TAIQ?

- Frees up classroom time for discipline-specific teaching
- Facilitates scaffolded learning by progressively developing academic integrity skills for confident application in assessments
- Reduces integrity-related workload for teaching staff

HOW YOU CAN USE IT?

- Embed TAIQ directly in your Moodle course (via SCORM)
- Set it as a hurdle task aligned with the first major assessment to scaffold learning and promote academic integrity
- Enable TAIQ completion tracking in Moodle for progress monitoring

DEMONSTRATED POSITIVE IMPACT

📌 Widely Adopted: Embedded in 65+ courses across faculties

★ Strong positive feedback: 91% of participants found TAIQ helpful, with an average satisfaction rating of 4.22 out of 5

📊 Strong Student Uptake: Over 5,100 completions in just two terms (T3 2024 – T1 2025)

📈 Confidence Boost: 95% of students reported increased confidence in practicing academic integrity after completing TAIQ

🗣️ What Academics Are Saying:

"As a teaching team, we saw far fewer incidents of academic integrity issues in written assessments than in previous terms, which was heartening to see"

- Course Convenor – Faculty of Law and Justice

READY TO BOOST STUDENT CONFIDENCE AND INTEGRITY WITH TAIQ?

✉️ Contact us: academicskills@unsw.edu.au

📄 Submit an EOI: Expression of Interest Form here

🔗 View the module: student.unsw.edu.au/academic-integrity-module

Instructor Key: Staff583

